Cholera Morbus and Bowel Complaints

"Over 35 cases in every hundred of summer complaints could be avoided," says a leading specialist. "If every one was careful to keep his system toned up with Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. It's the most effective germ destroyer known to the medical profession."

DUFFY'S PURE MALT WHISKEY

is an absolutely pure distillation of malted grain, great care being used to have every kernel thoroughly malted, thus destroying the germ and producing a predigested liquid food in the form of a malt essence which is the most effective tonic stimulant and invigorator known to science. Softened by warmth and moisture, its palatability and freedom from injurious substances render it so that it can be retained by the most sensitive stomach.

It is recognized everywhere as the unfailing specific for the cure of consumption, nervousness, typhoid, malaria, every form of stomach trouble, all diseases of the throat and lungs, and all run down and weakened conditions of the brain and body. It restores youthful vigor to the old and maintains the health and strength of the young. It nourishes and feeds the vital forces of life. It is prescribed by doctors of all schools, is used in all the leading hospitals of the world, and is recognized as a family medicine everywhere. It is absolutely pure.

Sold by druggists, grocers and dealers, or direct. $1 a bottle. Write Dr. R. Curran, Consulting Physician, for a free illustrated medical booklet containing some of the many convincing testimonials received from grateful men and women who have been cured, and free advice. SCRAPS

FROM THE NEWSMAN'S NOTES

Scene: The Promotion Committee room.

Dramatis Personae: The Fleet Executive Committee with Geo. R. Carter in the chair, Chairman F. L. Waldron of the Entertainment Committee and the press; in the background the Promotion Fairies, Mr. Will J. Cooper and Mr. Will J. Cooper's little dog.

Carter: I've read and approved the minutes.
So we can begin the play.
Mr. Wood, you will see
If any but me—
Morgan: But us.
Peck: But he.
Geo. W. Smith: But him.
Carter (continues): But we.
Carter (continues): Has anything to say?

He'd better get out of the way.
(Carter assumes a Rooseveltian attitude and then turns to the press.)
Hear my command,
You beastly band
Of congre low muckrakers,
You cannot stay,
Unless you say
You won't record my breaks.

Brewster: Damified
Not for you.
(At a sign from Carter, Brewster is swept from the scene by a blast of hot air.)

Carter: And now I guess
We'll take the press
Committee appropriation;
They want too much,
For seem as such
Should need no ostentation.
(Brewster is heard weeping outside. Carter's face hardens.)
I hate the press,
In every mess
I made in my administration,
My every rave
The beggars gave
For popular edification.
It is therefore moved, seconded, put and carried by me.

That the press don't get nothing,
(Carter's face at Brewster, who is peering through the door) There you see.
(Brewster sticks his tongue out at Carter, puts his feet in his pockets and saunters off jauntily whistling "No body works but Carter.")
Wood: The committee to entertain
Gives figures for a ball.
Carter: Cut it out, for they give me a pain;
I will not allow it at all.
Waldron: I represent the committee.
Then all.
I would give you an explanation.
Carter: Have a care, I will show you my eye.

IT IS A
For your undated resignation.
Waldron: It isn't no use for you to row.
You can't run this show;
You ain't now nothing anyhow.
No more than last year's snow.
You're no more in the limelight now.
Your place is where the shade is.
We do not have to ask you "How."
And you can go to Hades.
(Upon this terrible blasphemy the members of the committee disappear under the table—H. P. Wood holds his hands before his face—Mr. Will J. Cooper's little dog barks loudly—the two Promotion Fairies faint dead away—the curtain to the wash room is rent in twain—Carter tears his thirty-dollar toupée regardless—a horrible sound like a Thwing fills the air. Gradually the sound ceases, when the rest of the entertainment committee, which has been called to the scene by Brewster, arrives. Its members line themselves in a solid phalanx and sing to the tune of "Just Because You Made Them Googoo Eyes":)

Carter thinks he's bound to run it all.
He wants to show us how to run the ball;
But we'll tell him what it is.
It is nothing of his biz.
We love him, but we do not like his rail.
(Carter pulls a Big Stick from his hip pocket and throws a fit among the Promotion literature, 150,000 pamphlets of which are thus distributed to distant places—Sheriff Lauka, Lee Let, Richards, Jack Lucas at the head of the Ministerial Union, the Keepers of the Foolish House, Japanese Cupids, Past Due Mills, Ballentine, Lyle Dickey, Geo. Davis, Captain Carter, the sea-serpent, R. Beverley Kidd's Kona Hyingfish and other monsters of the deep appear in kaleidoscopic confusion, during which the curtain falls.)

During the intermission between the acts our charming $1400 a week sourette Miss A. P. Taylor, will sing one of her own original compositions, entirely made up by herself.

The printer's devil, for the time transformed into the mascot of the Newspaper League, addresses the foreman, who holds the bats and the sweaters. "Say, ain't it de limit?" he wants to know. "De funny guy what writes de games up fer de Advertiser is de only mug in de grand stand."
"It's the limit all right," says the other. "But it's his own fault. These games weren't started to be a joke. You can't expect other people to take them seriously if the newspapers don't. This ain't no musical comedy, even if Berger's band was out for the first season."

"Say, but he writes de funny dope, chins in de devil, admirably."
"Sure. But he ain't no special correspondent for Puck. This league has got to have the crowds if it is to be a go, and we can't get 'em by making fun of ourselves. People don't pay money for Puck; they read it in a barber shop. And they ain't going to pay their money to see burlesque baseball. Not so as you can notice it, Nitt!"

"How are the mighty fallen!"
Thus was the arrest of United States District Attorney Breckons by Thwing summed up by Attorney Kinney, who is opposing counsel in the Moses Koki case. However, to show that there was no hard feeling in the matter, Kinney immediately tendered his services in furnishing bail or giving any other assistance to the "fallen" official. Breckons seemed rather scornful, for he stated that he didn't want Kinney to do a Thwing for him.

Acting Governor Mott-Smith has fallen from grace. Last week he solemnly announced that after fifteen years of hard smoking, he had decided to give up the weed. The lure of the seductive Habana proved too strong for good intentions, however, and he was even seen smoking a cigarette the other day, which only goes to show that either Jack Atkinson or Rev. Mr. Thwing is carrying matters a little too far.

It has been interesting to watch Lee Let, the Chinaman accused of bribery, during the course of his trial the last few days. Dressed in haole style, with an unusually high stiff collar and an ancient Panama sky-piece which fits him altogether too late, he has come to the Judiciary building each morning escorted by three or four of his faithful followers. Although he sat in the next chair to his attorney, he did not display the slightest interest in the progress of the trial, appearing to be more than half asleep the greater part of the time. Now and then, when the attorneys would mix it a little warmer than usual, or when a particularly sharp bit of cross-examination was going on, he would gaze up mildly, as if wondering what the whole thing was about. Ah, indeed the ways of the Chinese are peculiar to the haole.

Can't Empty The Ocean

Andrew Larsen of Sorenson & Larsen, merchant tailors of Salt Lake City, was so low with kidney disease that he was in bed and death was looked for almost daily.

The treatment was changed. He began to mend. His partner phoned the doctor he was slightly better. The doctor replied: "It makes no difference. It is as impossible for him to recover as it is to empty the ocean."
The progress was so slow that the patient would get discouraged and read our book for a brace. He says he thinks he read it a hundred times. But the day he finished the third dozen he was back to business. Wonder what his physician thinks about emptying the ocean.
Physicians call kidney trouble Nephritis. This means inflammation of the kidneys.

The old diuretics (kidney medicines) are kidney exhausters. No wonder the kidney deaths have doubled.
Fulton's Renal Compound is the first successful kidney emollient thus reducing kidney inflammation and controlling kidney troubles that have resisted all known treatment as in the above Salt Lake case. Literature mailed free.
